Members of the Class of 1939:

In gratefully acknowledging the dedication of this Annual, I would remind you that three years of your life have coincided with three years of the life of Springfield College. Those three years have been among the most difficult in the history of the college, a period which saw the end of one administration, the trying days of an interregnum, and the beginning of another regime. That we have survived and have reason to be encouraged as we face the immediate future is due to the cooperation between the students and the officers of administration. The class of '39 has helped in this period of reconstruction by its loyalty and initiative. During this time, admission standards have been raised; a common Freshman year has been established in the curriculum; a new Student Council and Faculty-Student Boards for the control of social and athletic activities have been organized. In these and other achievements, you have had your share of influence.

As you pursue your fourth and final year at Springfield, I would commend to you the thoughtful contemplation of the query: "Education for What?" How would you answer that question? Some would say: "A job"; others, "Culture". It happens that Springfield makes a happy combination of these two goals, the vocational and the cultural, and sees education, therefore, as a preparation for literacy as well as for life. Even so, much depends on the attitude and ambition of the individual student. The college does not make the man; nor does it ruin him. A man can achieve an authentic education anywhere, if he will. He can also turn into a failure anywhere. But the college can make a difference! If you will permit it, Springfield can help you to attain an "education plus", which being interpreted means integrity, purposefulness, explorer-mindedness, and self-control.

That your last year at Alma Mater may be rich in these respects is the wish of

Your friend and fellow-explorer,

Fred G. Bratton

To

A true scholar and Christian gentleman

DR. FRED G. BRATTON

we respectfully dedicate this

THE PUEBLO

CAMPUS IN WINTER

SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE LIBRARY
SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

"The Class of 1938"

"Remember?"

THE Class of 1938 has seen many changes at Springfield. As Freshmen there were at least two in every room on the fourth floor of Alumni Hall and most of us cooked all our meals in our rooms. Remember? That year we witnessed the celebration of Springfield's fiftieth anniversary, when President Laurence L. Doggett announced his retirement. We went to Freshman Camp during the spring term, where we chased butterflies and camped for 10 days. Remember?

In our Sophomore year we initiated the Class of '39. The only reason we didn't get pulled through the lake was because the rope broke. Remember? This was the year when we were allowed to try out for the Varsity teams. Some of the class did not return, but we were augmented by a few transfers who have since become our classmates.

As Juniors we became upperclassmen and we were proud of it. We had two large assignments. One of them was the Junior Prom, which was held at the Butterfly Ballroom. The prom committee worked hard and everyone enjoyed this major social event of the year. Remember? The other task was the publication of the 1937 Massasoit. This year-book had some novel ideas which made the book unique and worth while. Remember? This year also saw the election and inauguration of Dr. Ernest M. Best as the new president. Remember?

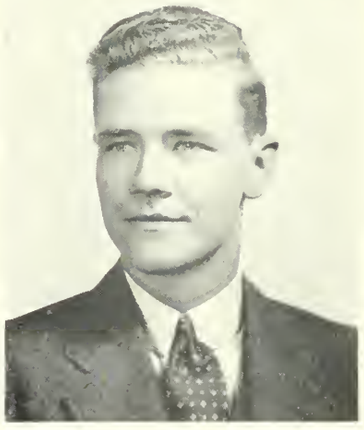

We are now Seniors. We see many new faces among the faculty, and a new group of Freshmen taking their rightful place among us. We are getting ready to find permanent positions "in the field," and are also raising money to pay class debts which we incurred. Remember? And now we are graduating, with Sherwood Eddy as the Commencement speaker.

It is all done and we are leaving Springfield. It seemed very distant when we were told as Frosh that we were the Class of '38, but it has come and is now complete. We take many memories from here: Our class fellowship, the friendship of the fellows in the other classes, our association with the boys from foreign countries, our work with the professors, and above all, our preparedness for the future. Best of luck to those that follow us, and we are going out to prove our worthwhileness in the world.

Class of 1939

WITH three years on the shore of Massasoit behind us, we look forward to our Senior year with anticipation and trepidation as thoughts of future occupations crowd into our minds.

As a class we have participated in the life of the College by contributing our best endeavors on the field, in the classroom, and wherever our extra-curricular activities have taken us. This year has been notable for the skilled performance of our members in football, basketball, gym exhibitions, and in other sports. The outstanding social event, the Junior Prom, was entirely successful and showed much foresight and planning. The publication of the "Massasoit" as a tribute to the Seniors should not be overlooked, nor should we forget the efforts of men in the various clubs which help to make the full college life.

To the other classes at Springfield College we pass on a challenge—a challenge to high standards in sportsmanship, in fellowship, and in Christian brotherhood. These we have contributed to our fullest extent, and leave to you, our fellow students of Springfield, as our heritage.

Class of 1940

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS, enriched by a full year of college life, has continued to make its contribution toward the further development of the life of the College.

Returning from varied and profitable vacations, the members of the class fought for and won prominent places on all varsity teams and in other extra-curricular organizations.

Despite the able leadership of President Al Werner and his "board of strategy," Bruce Monroe, Dick Redding, Bud Salomon, and Rudy Matousek, our initial engagements met with reverses at the hands of the Frosh on two out of three occasions. Undaunted by these minor "upsets," the class persisted in its display of spirit throughout the winter term by such rousing performances as were featured on the basketball court by the "Sophomore Brigade."

Others of us were pouring forth our energy into the "Student," into social and administrative clubs, and into channels outside the confines of campus activity.

The crowning event of our campaign to restore and increase college spirit was the class project of leveling North Field on April 7. Following this contribution of manual labor there was evidenced the most rousing display of class spirit witnessed on campus for many moons. Those men failing to take part in the shoveling and raking exercise were "treated to a dip" in the receptive waters of "Massasoit." To polish off the proceedings, a few Freshmen were likewise "treated."

These demonstrations are merely physical manifestations of an unwavering determination to improve and expand the cultural development of our institution.

Class of 1941

WE arrived on campus late last September with the customary bewilderment of all incoming classes. Our first week was notable for the visits made to Freshman Camp, the Eastern States Exposition, and to the homes of various faculty members. Not to be forgotten were the conferences with a small number of upperclassmen who were on campus and the numerous tests which were taken. The week passed quickly, upperclassmen began to arrive, our classes started, and our first year was officially begun.

Soon the Sophomores, through their president, Al Werner, gave us some "instructions" regarding the far-famed "initiation week." Few of us will forget the things which transpired during that week.

Fall sports soon started and our class teams made out very well. Time wore on and the dreaded date for "exams" approached rapidly. With "exams" behind us, we left campus to spend the Christmas holiday with our families and friends, where we experienced the pleasant distinction of being referred to as "college men" by the home-town folks. After three months of "Hi, Frosh!" it was quite welcome.

We returned to campus for the winter term and really buckled down to work. The Freshman winter sport teams started their schedules and the gym was thronged every afternoon with groups participating in gym stunts, games, and calisthenics. The term wore on and finally "exams" were upon us again. Most of us went to the last "exam" with a suitcase in one hand and a train ticket in the other.

Back again on campus for the spring term we find the grass is greener, leaves are on the trees, and we experience that delicious feeling known as "spring fever." "Bull sessions" resound with talk of Freshman Camp, summer jobs, and the Junior Prom. After religiously avoiding the Senior walk all year, we are looking forward to the time when we can walk upon it and be called Sophomores. "Sophomores!" Last fall there was a definite stigma attached to that word, but now it seems quite acceptable.

The year is almost at an end and if our other years here are as enjoyable and profitable, we shall be satisfied.

The Graduate Division

GRADUATE work has been offered in Springfield College since 1899 and regular classes have received graduate degrees each year since 1905. The Master of Education degree has been offered since 1926. At present forty-three graduate students are in residence and more than one hundred are registered in courses in the Summer School or for thesis guidance in field studies.

Four major areas of graduate study are emphasized at present, Health and Safety Education, Physical Education, Group Work Education, and professional education in the specialized fields of the arts and sciences.

RAIDERS' PARADISE

STUDENT
ORGANIZATIONS

The Student Council

THE student government of the College was radically changed during the past year to facilitate functioning of student activities and to achieve a more cooperative and integrated alliance between the administration, the faculty, and the students. Among the outstanding accomplishments of the council this year was the organization and support of the faculty-student retreat in cooperation with the Student Christian Association and the administration. The retreat proved to be quite valuable and it is hoped that it shall become an annual activity of the College. The council also sponsored and revived interest in the publication of a student Handbook for the first time in five years. Another important adjustment in campus activities was the turning over of the student Store to the administration to be run as a College enterprise. Two other important acts of the group was the re-alignment of the relationship of the Athletic Board and the creation of a Social Activities Board whose duties it is to act in an advisory capacity to the groups conducting social affairs.

The reorganization of the Student Council has, in its first year, proven of inestimable value. Although the organization is far from complete, the new set-up appears to be the answer to the problems connected with the matter of student government.

President ..... Peter P. Slader
Vice-President ..... William A. Donovan
Secretary ..... Kenneth F. Woodward
Treasurer ..... Hector W. Kay

Social Activities Board

THE SOCIAL ACTIVITIES BOARD is a department of the reorganized student government. Its purpose is to conserve and progressively guide the development of the religious, educational, and cultural life of the students of the College toward more effective individual and group activity. The board cooperates with the cultural, religious, social, and educational organizations on the campus; evaluates the work of the various groups and approves rules and regulations pertaining to them; supervises their financial management; approves the formation of new clubs and organizations and provides financial assistance, advice, and guidance. Other functions of the board are to schedule events and to supervise the participation of students and spectators in all events.

The Social Activities Board faced a number of serious problems this year which were even more complicated because the board was a new department of the student government and had to clearly and intelligently develop its policy and define its purpose and function. The board after spending hours in study and conference has definitely established its position and has gone far in coordinating and making more effective the social life on the campus.

Athletic Board

THE ATHLETIC BOARD, which has come into existence under the newly reorganized Student Government, has, under the leadership of President Paul Stagg, in collaboration with H. S. DeGroat, director of Athletics, assumed almost complete charge of athletics and has done much to coordinate and clarify the sports program of the College.

The functions of the Athletic Board are to assimilate and coordinate the views of the students and faculty in the establishment of policies pertaining to the organization and administration of the athletic program. The board appropriates funds to the various athletic activities, plans schedules, is responsible for the awarding of letters, the establishing of admission rates for athletic events, regulation of eligibility, the appointment of managers and captains, and controls all other aspects of the athletic program of the College.

The Athletic Board consists of nine members, five of whom are of the faculty and the remaining four representing the student body. Two of the student members represent the board at Council meetings and bring back student opinion so that the board may better fulfil its function.

In so far as this is the Athletic Board's first year of existence on campus, it has had to face many problems concerning the interpretation of its duties and the establishment of policies. In approaching these problems frankly and cooperatively the board has done much to stabilize the athletic program and to justify its existence.

President ..... Paul Stagg
Vice-President ..... Ralph Plumb
Secretary ..... Robert Atkinson
Treasurer ..... Bertram Townsend

Varsity Club

THE VARSITY CLUB brings together all of the men on campus who have received their Varsity "S" in a major sport of the College and who have maintained high scholastic standards. The club has as its purpose the supporting of social activities on the campus, the promotion of a genuine campus spirit, the creating of good fellowship among students, and the development of character. The club assumes responsibility for interclass competition and the holding of pep rallies.

One of the interesting phases of the club's program is the colorful and unique initiation ceremony which is held once each term. Other activities of the group during the past year include a banquet, a successful dance, and lectures by interesting speakers from the field of sports.

The club has done much to maintain the high standards for which Springfield College athletes are known around the world.

President ..... Roderick E. Bent
Vice-President ..... Carl R. Carlson
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Charles Bohlinger

The Student

IN endeavoring to maintain the same high standards of college journalism which have marked The Student during past years, the staff during the year just ended was faced with the same financial curtailment which harassed all other student activities, but the editors are pleased to feel that the faithful work and personal sacrifice of the whole staff made it possible to provide the campus with a regular weekly publication, worthy of the support and cooperation of the entire student body.

Accuracy and fairness have been the guide-posts along the road by which the staff strove to attain the threefold purpose which indicates a successful college publication. First, it must be a bulletin of campus activities, and secondly, an historical record of those activities. Finally, it must be a mirror of student opinion, at the same time helping to guide and to express current campus thought.

In a year which saw many revisions and innovations on our campus, The Student has tried constantly both to inform the students of such changes and to help accelerate student support and acceptance of many of the new undertakings which it thought were for the best interests of the College.

Several important revisions in the staff had to be made in mid-season, but notwithstanding that fact the staff as a whole functioned smoothly and efficiently.

Handbook Staff

THE SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE HANDBOOK made its appearance on campus this year for the first time since 1933. The Handbook, attractively bound in maroon with gold lettering, serves the student throughout the year as a guide to campus activities and this year, for the first time, it includes local points of interest. A score of pages have been devoted to these innovations; besides the history of the city of Springfield are listed various cultural opportunities furnished through the public buildings, particularly the library, the museums, the churches, the recreational centers, and other places of historical interest.

The reappearance of a Handbook on Springfield was the occasion for much enthusiasm because of the long-felt need for such a publication. Because of its new form, its many new features, and its general utility, the Handbook staff deserves especial commendation.

Maroon Key Society

THE MAROON KEY SOCIETY was formed on the campus to meet the need for some group to act as the representative of the College in welcoming visiting teams which come to the campus.

The society has been active on the campus for a number of years. Although the work done does not attract attention from the student body, it plays a very important part in the relationship of the College with other College groups.

The society is made up of thirty Sophomores. Members are selected on the basis of scholarship, personality, and their desire to be of service to the College. The officers are members of the Junior class who were members in their Sophomore year.

The duties of a Maroon Key man are many and varied. He is called upon to welcome visiting teams, serve at teas, aid in locating friends, and be on hand should College men be needed for any event taking place on campus. This year the members did a noteworthy job during the Western Massachusetts Basketball Tournament, acting as hosts to the numerous high school teams on the campus and in the city.

The society has a great many opportunities for service this year, and as a result of these opportunities a large number of its members have qualified for the Maroon Key Charm, which is awarded to those members who complete a required number of hours of service.

President ..... Murray MacFarlane
Vice-President ..... Jay Bender
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Winthrop Frazee

Science Club

THE SCIENCE CLUB is a unique organization on our campus. Its purpose is to promote interest in science and to coordinate the activities of the various science departments of the College.

Membership in full is limited to upperclassmen who have declared their interest in science and who have "B" average in their science courses. Associate membership is granted to Freshmen and upperclassmen who are not qualified for membership but who are interested in the activities of the club.

Meetings have been held every two weeks. Lectures and reports by both members of the club and interesting speakers brought in from the outside have proved to be very stimulating. The club also sponsored a speaker before a general convocation of the College, Dr. Harold S. Burr of Yale University, and a joint meeting with Mt. Holyoke College Zoology Club at which Dr. W. B. Kirkham, former professor of Biology at Springfield College, was heard in a talk on eugenics.

The high point of the year for the Science Club was the Connecticut Valley Scientific Conference at Amherst. Representing the College, the club sponsored papers and exhibitions from all science departments.

President ..... Richard L. Burt
Secretary ..... Jack Penfold
Treasurer ..... Laurence E. Clark
Conference Chairman ..... Hal LeMaistre

Cosmopolitan Club

THE COSMOPOLITAN CLUB, which brings together men of all nationalities on the campus, began its season with the induction of new members. Dr. E. M. Best, president of the College, formally greeted the new members from abroad. The fire of friendship was passed around the circle once more, symbolizing the spirit of brotherhood which exists on the campus among the men of all nationalities, colors, and creeds. Men representing America, Australia, Bulgaria, Canada, China, Czechoslovakia, Egypt, Germany, Greece, Hawaii, Lithuania, Mexico, Mohican Indians, Russia, Siam, and Sweden constitute the club membership.

The activities of the club this year included a moving picture night with a "Greek" banquet, induction into honorary membership to the Springfield Y's Men's Club, International Night at Worcester, a joint "straw ride" and "barn dance" with the Cosmopolitan Clubs of both Smith and Mt. Holyoke Colleges at Springfield, social gatherings at private homes, a "hot-dog" roast and dance with Smith and Mt. Holyoke at Mt. Holyoke, a dance at Smith College, and the annual "Farewell Banquet."

The sincere spirit of understanding, friendship, and good-will existing in the club has been in no small measure due to the friendly guidance and personal interest of our adviser and esteemed friend, Dr. Frank M. Mohler.

We take pleasure in passing on the fire of friendship to the Cosmopolitans of future years.

International Relations Club

IN a year of extreme significance for the history of international developments, the campus International Relations Club, which exists for the purpose of studying and furthering interest in problems of international relations, has shown no mean interest in the contemporary scene. With a membership combining the experience of upperclassmen and the enthusiasm of underclassmen, the club has had an extremely busy and profitable year.

Meetings have been held every other week and devoted to a discussion of international problems through speeches, debates, and panel and socialized discussions. In the course of the year several cooperative meetings were held with similar groups of other colleges.

The International Relations Club participated to advantage in the New England International Relations Conference held at Colby Junior College and in the New England Model League of Nations, at which the local group was represented by thirteen delegates. The latter activity was the major objective of the club throughout the entire year, and because of very careful preparation the local group represented Springfield College in commendable fashion. Another valuable function of the club has been to provide speakers on international relations subjects for many community groups.

Vice-President ..... Maurice Kling
Secretary-Treasurer ..... William A. Donovan

Student Christian Association

FOR the first time in many years the religious activities on campus have been carried on by a Student Christian Association. The S. C. A. is affiliated with the World Student Christian Federation and the National Student Christian Federation. Although these larger associations give the group the advantage of being identified with national groups, its primary emphasis has been upon meeting the demand for an organization characterizing the nature and the ideals of Springfield College. The problems of our campus have been of paramount concern to the group and in the fall of this year it was instrumental in organizing a faculty-student retreat, which provided an excellent opportunity for frank discussion of student, faculty, and administration problems.

The Student Christian Association recognizes that, from its birth, Springfield College has been concerned with the development of Christian leadership for the youth of the world. In a year marked by subtle and significant changes, it becomes increasingly essential that idealism be not sacrificed to conformity nor Christianity to the status quo. With these things in mind, the S. C. A. has set before itself the task of interpreting Christianity and its implications for our times. However, these interests have not been confined to mere academic and theological discussions.

The S. C. A. sponsored several speakers at College forums, among whom have been Wilmer J. Kitchen, Joel Seidman, and the Rev. H. Hughes Wagner. The group was represented at the National Assembly of Student Christian Associations at Oxford, Ohio, and has kept in touch with student thought through numerous New England conferences. It has made its contribution to the recreational and cultural life of the College by sponsoring dances and a marionette show. Frequent inter-college meetings have been held with students of other near-by colleges.

President ..... William A. Howes
Vice-Presidents ..... Lester Finley, Bradley Longstaff

Treasurer ..... Chester Tibbetts

Tea and Topics

TEA AND TOPICS seeks to further and to broaden the literary experiences of students and to acquaint them with the great works and minds of all times. At the same time it aims to develop in its members desirable habits of reading, speaking, and logical thinking. It also seeks to sponsor and lend support to the furtherance of the cultural and aesthetic aspects of campus life, such as music, art, public speaking, and literary publications.

Meetings of the group are held each Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Gena Hickox, faculty adviser to the group, and at the homes of other faculty members upon invitation. This year, in addition to the regular meeting place, meetings have been held in the homes of Dr. and Mrs. A. Z. Mann, Dr. and Mrs. Frank M. Mohler, and Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Conklin. Regular meetings consist of a discussion of some literary figure or topic of interest to the group, led by one of the members, consideration of business matters, and an extemporaneous discussion of some contemporary problem.

The highlights of the society's program this year were: a joint meeting with the History Seminar class to discuss Chinese music and to view motion pictures of Chinese life; the attendance of the society in a body at the presentation of "The Far-Off Hills" by the Springfield College and Westfield Teachers College Dramatic Societies and the entertainment of the cast at an informal party following the play; the organization of several after-dinner speaking groups which have stimulated wide interest and participation in public speaking on the campus.

President ..... Rollo Dee Pierce
Vice-President ..... Oliver Smith
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Russell E. Whipple
Extensions Secretary ..... William A. Donovan

Dramatic Club

THE DRAMATIC CLUB performs a double function on the campus because it is composed of students of the Drama course and students interested in drama as an extra-curricular activity. The purpose of the club is to acquaint its members with the best plays of today and yesterday, to study the fundamentals of good acting, and to learn the techniques of play production. Many opportunities are presented for the club to cooperate with other dramatic groups in the city and near-by colleges in the production of plays. This enables the members to apply the principles and techniques around which their course of study is built.

The Dramatic Club has cooperated with the Westfield State Teachers' College, Mt. Holyoke College, and a number of churches in Springfield in presenting various plays. Early in the fall three one-act plays were presented at the Longmeadow Community House. Two of the outstanding productions of the year were "Three-Cornered Moon," presented at Trinity Church, and "The Far-Off Hills," at the Westfield State Teachers' College and at Trinity Church in Springfield. Two plays are in the course of production as this book goes to press, one with Mt. Holyoke College and another to be presented at the College during Commencement week.

Pi Gamma Mu

PI GAMMA MU, the National Social Science Honor Society, is represented on the campus by the Massachusetts Beta Chapter. The purpose of this society is "the inculcation of ideals of scholarship, scientific attitude and methods, and social service in relation to all social problems."

Pi Gamma Mu has two functions: to elect to its membership upperclassmen who have attained high rank in scholarship and who have distinguished themselves in the social sciences, including sociology, social work, economics, government, education, history, philosophy, psychology, biology, ethics, and religion; and to sponsor programs devoted to the interest of the social sciences. This honor society is not connected in any way with the Social Science division of the College, and its membership is open to students of all divisions who fulfil the national requirements.

The local chapter has, during the past year, carried on a limited program. One of the interesting features of this program was a symposium on housing problems. The most significant event of the year was a joint meeting of the International Relations Club and the Pi Gamma Mu Society. Gilbert Radlo, a prominent labor leader, spoke and conducted a forum on "The Conflict Between the American Federation of Labor and the Committee for Industrial Organization."

The society was pleased to initiate into its fellowship this year J. Edward Todd, dean of Freshmen, and six members of the student body. It looks forward to a further stimulation of interest in scholarship and a higher appreciation of the social sciences at Springfield.

Junior Prom Committee

THE JUNIOR PROM COMMITTEE, under the capable leadership of Norman Lague, worked diligently for months, and their activities finally culminated in a very successful and enjoyable Junior Promenade on May 6th. The Junior Class traditionally sponsors this dance in honor of the Seniors, although underclassmen who desired to participate in the main social function of the year were welcomed.

The Prom was held in the beautiful surroundings of the Golden Room at the Kimball Hotel; Ken Reeves and his orchestra delighted the Prom guests with the latest in "swing."

The remainder of the Prom week-end provided many diversions. The sports calendar offered a baseball game, lacrosse game, and track meet. The inimitable Earl O'Neill and his "Springfield Dons" provided the music for the tea dance which was a fitting climax to a week-end of gaiety.

Glee Club

THE GLEE CLUB attracted an unusually large number of candidates this year and the club had a highly successful season. Thirty men enjoyed the pleasure and fellowship of singing together under the direction of Madame Helene Shirley-Jackson. Audiences before which the club appeared commented favorably upon the quality of performance and general excellence of the organization. Because of the high degree of success enjoyed this year, and the training and experience of the Sophomore and Junior members, it may be expected to attain increasing importance on the campus.

The repertoire included selections by Bach, Wagner, Liszt, Verdi, and Sibelius. The club sponsored a successful Hallowe'en dance and gave a number of concerts in Springfield. The annual home concert and dance was held in Carlisle Foyer on March 18. Mrs. Dorothy Birchard Mulroney, organist and carilloneur, appeared as guest artist. Augmenting the fine performance of the club and the guest artist was the solo work of Dean Ross and Lester Finley; also vocal and guitar selections by Clement Banks.

The Band

THE BAND was completely reorganized this year under the direction of William Wright, '40, who was the first student director in the history of the Band. New uniforms were purchased and the Band was able to make a colorful and impressive appearance. The Band is now an all-year activity and the purpose is to provide opportunities for students who are interested in instrumental music to develop their interest and at the same time to give the College a band which makes a definite contribution to campus activities.

The Band appeared a number of times at the convocations, and has played an important part in adding to the color and enthusiasm at the football games and accompanied the team to the Harvard and Dartmouth games. The Band also played at some of the basketball games, where it was well received.

The Band is practising diligently to represent Springfield College for the first time at the New England Music Festival at Massachusetts State College this spring at Amherst. The members of the Band and their director deserve high praise for their initiative and interest.

Springfield Dons

TWO years ago Earl O'Neill gathered together a few College musicians who played here and there to enthusiastic crowds. Becoming encouraged and growing steadily better, he added to his personnel until he arrived at the popular and very busy aggregation of which the College is now so proud.

Earl, the baton man, is also one of the instrumental and vocal soloists, along with Roland Lyford. Bill Blanchard, Lefty Lyford, and O'Neill comprise the vocal trio. Novelties adding to the band's appeal are "The Candle," the hilarious "Three Trees," and "Swing and Sway with Sammy Kaye, Toe and Heel with Earl O'Neill."

The Springfield Dons have carried the name of their Alma Mater far and wide, having played at such notable spots as Glen Island Casino, The Norwich Inn, and Briar Hills Country Club. They are well known in colleges throughout New England, major visits having been to Smith, Mount Holyoke, Massachusetts State, Connecticut State, Yale, Amherst, Trinity, Williams, and Wesleyan.

The College will miss the Dons next year; graduating members are William Blanchard, Earl O'Neill, and Manager Karl Hartman.

Hail the National Champions!

Varsity Soccer

THE 1937 SOCCER TEAM started New England Championship performance against a stubborn Dartmouth eleven. They journeyed to Hanover during the first week of October, and with but a full week of practice they came back to campus with Dartmouth's scalp in their belt. Two Sophomores were discovered by the watchful eye of Coach John Brock who were to play an important part in our soccer success, namely, "Smoky Bob" Mortenson and Bruce Munro; both men contributed to the score, Mortenson with two goals and Munro with one.

After a one-week lay-off the Maroon and White met Syracuse on Pratt Field. Coach Brock had a much-improved team on the field, but for the exception of a loosely-played third quarter when the visitors scored a penalty kick and tallied on a driving shot from the toe of Trani, Syracuse's all-American star. During the first half Bruce Munro continued his scoring power and placed us in a two-goal lead. The fourth quarter had but two minutes left of play when Carl Condon, one of the "fifteen," won the game with one of the most spectacular shots ever seen on Pratt Field.

The next five games took the Brockmen on the road, and the first stop was at Cambridge, where M. I. T. felt the power of Captain "Spike" Moyer, "Rod" Bent, and Mortenson. "Dutch" Bieber cleared the goal of all attempts taken by the enemy to score, and as the rain slackened in the fourth quarter, the Brockmen had gained their third victory.

Cortland was the next victim on the Springfield schedule. The Maroon and White had a field day in scoring goals; the parade was led by the able "Smoky Bob" Mortenson, who scored four times. Bruce Munro added insult to injury, scoring twice, and Chris Chachis found the range of the Cortland net for a goal. However, Cortland had two men who took part in the "parade of goals": Dockerty and Rodecki each scored.

Connecticut State fell before a barrage of Springfield goals which were more evenly distributed among the winners. Mortenson continued to be the chief menace, scoring twice. Condon, Munro, Sorrentino, and Captain Moyer found the enemy an easy prey. Belion scored a penalty kick for the Blue and White.

On a bright November afternoon the Brockmen left for Philadelphia and came back to Springfield with a victory over Temple. The Sophomore flashes, Mortenson and Munro, penetrated Temple's goal, and Bieber stopped all attempts that Temple made to score.

Harvard found "Dutch" Bieber to be the toughest goalie they encountered all season, and Dave Ward's heading ability "par excellence" in a fierce battle in the rain, and the scoring power of the all-American Munro, won the game for Springfield. The clever Munro scored twice for the Maroon and White, the only player on either team who was successful in getting the ball by the goalies.

Rensselaer bowed to the Maroon and White in the last home game of the season, while Munro and Mortenson pulled their brotherly act by sharing the scoring honors. R. P. I. fought off a Brockman victory for three quarters, but in the last few minutes Springfield opened in high and hammered in three goals. It was a thrilling finish to a game that was played while snowflakes whirled through the ozone.

Captain Moyer led his mates to the last victory, the ninth win of the season, by overcoming a one-goal Yale lead in the third quarter. Pond drew blood for the Bulldogs in the first quarter; in the third quarter Bruce Munro pounded the ball over Eli's pay line. The team caught the needed spark from this score, and the Yale goalie was exhausted from stopping shots taken by the Brockmen sharpshooters. In the fourth quarter Les Eaton drove in the last goal of the season and the winning margin of the game, climaxing the greatest season ever enjoyed by the Springfield College Soccer team.

Varsity Football—1937

HAD it been artificially colored and flavored, Springfield could hardly have been a deeper green than it was when it took the field against Stroudsburg at the beginning of one of the toughest schedules ever faced by the Maroon men. After fourteen inspiring years as grid mentor, Coach Rothacher had turned the helm over to youthful Paul Stagg, and many veteran key-men had left in June to play a tougher game than football. While there were a few "tried and trues" left, they were too few to affect the general picture, and so Coach Stagg had on his hands a squad which—although replete with talent—was unseasoned, and strange to him and his methods. The road ahead was consequently a rocky one.

Trouble for the new coach developed with a rush when in the first days of September came the disappointing news that Captain-elect Herman "Dutch" Frey would not return to resume his studies and take up his duties at the fullback position. Furthermore, a pre-season injury resulted in the loss of the team's triple-threat star, Ralph Plumb, for the first three games. Each Saturday found the Maroon injury list mounting higher and higher, but the team and coach pressed on doggedly. While the play of the team may not have drawn superlatives from critics, the fighting spirit and dauntless courage of these grid-grimed, leather-crashing warriors did win the open admiration of friend and foe alike.

After a somewhat disappointing triumph over Stroudsburg, the Maroons bowed to the superior strength of Harvard and Dartmouth. Rutgers avenged its '36 loss to Springfield, as did Providence. Baldwin-Wallace of Ohio made its debut on the Maroon schedule with a convincing victory, and Northeastern was the winner in a close contest. Homecoming Day found New Hampshire at Pratt Field, the Wildcats going home with a hard-earned victory. St. Anselm's, the sole conquerors of the Wildcats, won its battle with the Maroons and the season was over.

To Ralph Plumb, despite the handicaps under which he played, went the honor of being the outstanding player of the year. At the post-season banquet Harold "Tige" Hall was voted honorary captain for the '37 season. "Ace" Clark was elected to lead the Maroons through their '38 campaign. Rutgers and Northeastern placed Plumb at right half on their All-Opponent teams, while the New Hampshire eleven gave Obeck the call over numerous other contenders for the left guard position.

All in all, it was a poor season for Springfield, but the Maroons have been accustomed to look ahead and not back. The future looks very bright indeed.

Springfield 7 Stroudsburg 0

Chase, Sub. Fullback, Tallies; Anderson Converts as Staggmen Win

Atkinson, Landis, Obeck, Hall, Cheney, Gibbs, Flint, Solamon, Clark, Phillips, and Mattoon were the eleven men chosen to open the Stagg regime, with Stroudsburg providing the opposition. The game was a typical early-season affair replete with fumbles and with penalties galore, while thrills were as scarce. Late in the second period "Clipper" Chase, substituting for Mattoon, hit right tackle for 19 yards and the winning tally, climaxing a sustained drive of 62 yards. The kick of Tom Anderson added the extra point.

Springfield 0 Harvard 54

Crimson Power Too Much for Maroons; Opderbeck, Werner Stand Out

The team's next stop was at Cambridge, where Dick Harlow's best Harvard eleven in several years exploded right before the eyes of the hapless Springfield contingent. Vernon Struck and Art Oakes led the Crimson team to victory over the stubborn, but outclassed, Maroon warriors. The only first down registered by Springfield came late in the final period when Russ Opderbeck skirted Harvard's left flank for 15 yards. Winning plaudits for their fine defensive work were Cheney, Obeck, Folsom, Clark, Phillips, and Al Werner, who stepped into Hall's shoes when the latter was forced from the game with an injury. It was the Crimson's day, however, to the tune of 54 to 0.

Springfield 0 Dartmouth 42

Landis Shows Promise as Punter; Johnson, Bentley, Clark Excel

At Hanover the Dartmouth Indians scalped the "sons of Massasoit," 42 to 0. Some 6,000 spectators watched the Big Green get off to an early lead when Warren King streaked 35 yards for the first of the three touchdowns scored by his team in the opening stanza. Tom Johnson, Maroon sub. fullback, kept the Dartmouth secondary constantly on the alert as he threatened several times to advance to the pay-off stripe. Ken Landis was called upon to handle the punting assignments, at which he did a fine job. Bentley, substituting for Werner, didn't give much ground through his pivot spot. "Ace" Clark was again mighty on both offense and defense.

Springfield 0 Rutgers 26

Plumb Returns to Maroon Line-up; Injuries Keep Five Regulars Out

With Ralph Plumb in the line-up for the first time since he was injured in a pre-season skirmish, and with G. Johnson, Redding, and Anderson receiving their first starting assignments, the Maroons engaged Rutgers on Pratt Field. Led by a fast-stepping Sophomore, Bill Tranavitch, the lads from New Brunswick had little trouble in defeating the Maroons 26 to 0. Obeck was the outstanding lineman on the field, while Plumb, Dillman, and Slader did some commendable ball-toting for Springfield. Cheney, Dattola, Werner, Phillips, and Gibbs were forced by injuries to watch the game from the bench.

Springfield 6 Providence 9

Plumb Scores for Springfield; Folsom Sets Stage for Touchdown

In a driving rainstorm that turned Hendricken Field into a near-quagmire, the battle with Providence went to the Friars, 9 to 6. After "Fluff" Folsom had recovered a Providence fumble on the three-yard line in the second period, Plumb smashed through right tackle for the touchdown. The Friars came right back with a tally, however, and by adding the extra point went into the lead. A safety in the final period clinched the victory for the opponents. Plumb played an outstanding game, ably backed by Folsom, Hall, Clark, and Obeck.

Springfield 6 Baldwin-Wallace 30

Plumb Scores Again; Opderbeck on 40-yard Gallop; Arnold Visitors' Star

A power-laden Baldwin-Wallace outfit from Berea, Ohio, was the next opponent to face the Maroons on Pratt Field. With an offense that was proficient in the air and murderous on the ground, they turned back the exponents of the Stagg "flanker-system" 30 to 6. Again it was Plumb who starred for the home team, going over for the first score of the day, and the only tally for Springfield, in the first period. Hoy Arnold of Baldwin-Wallace tossed passes with accuracy and directly or indirectly accounted for all his team's points.

Springfield 6 Northeastern 12

Tom Johnson Races 90 Yards for Lone Maroon Tally at Brookline

Rebounding from five successive defeats, Springfield journeyed to Brookline, Mass., to meet the Northeastern Huskies. Despite spectacular and inspired play, they failed to deliver the winning punch. The final whistle found them still clutching empty-handed for victory. After the Huskies had stopped two Maroon scoring threats inside their 5-yard line, they went on to tally twice themselves. Late in the third period Tom Johnson took a kickoff on his 10-yard stripe, side-stepped several would-be tacklers, high-balled into the open spaces, and streaked 90 yards downfield to score standing up.

Springfield 6 New Hampshire 14

Atkinson Takes Pass from Muir and Goes 70 Yards to Score; Obeck Stars

Beneath intermittently leaking skies that showered forth rain and snow, a crippled, infuriated Maroon eleven held a highly-favored New Hampshire team scoreless throughout the first half, but finally weakened to lose out, 14 to 6. Springfield's forward wall, featuring "Vic" Obeck and "Tige" Hall, fought the vaunted Wildcats to a standstill, stopping three scoring threats in the first period. So stubborn was the Maroon defense that the visitors were forced to take to the air to finally reach pay dirt. Fighting desperately to the last, Springfield took the ball on its own six with less than five minutes to play. After Muir and Dillman had smashed through for a first down on the 17, the former tossed a pass to Atkinson, who took the ball on his 30, broke away from two tacklers, and went the remaining 70 yards to score.

Springfield 0 St. Anselm's 20

Plumb, Slader, Dattola, Folsom, Hall Play Last Game for Maroons

With Pratt Field again a sea of mud and snow falling heavily throughout the afternoon, the final game of the gruelling schedule found the St. Anselm's winning a 20 to 0 victory over the Maroon team that had little to show except some very fine punting by Plumb. Springfield threatened to score early in the game, but a fumble on the 2-yard stripe ended this threat. Despite an injured shoulder, Ralph Plumb did a splendid job of ball-toting, and his consistent long-range punting was one of the outstanding features of the contest. Plumb, Slader, Dattola, Folsom, and Hall, five veterans who will be sorely missed, played their final game for the Maroon and White.

Varsity Basketball

MID-NOVEMBER found Coach Hickox sending his charges through regular practice sessions, with a skeptical eye upon the schedule which was to mark his twelfth year as basketball coach at Springfield. It was a tough schedule that lay ahead, and it was made all the tougher by the fact that graduation had cut deeply into the team that had carried Springfield to championship heights the previous two seasons.

As a nucleus around which to build his new quintet, Coach Hickox had Capt. Lawler, Phillips, Hettler, Tracy, Knox, and Reed, with the first two named being the only ones who were "regulars" in the '36 campaign. Up from Jay-Vee ranks came several likely-looking prospects and the Freshmen Varsity of the previous year reported almost intact.

Practice had hardly gotten under way when word spread about the campus to "watch Jackson!" Opposing guards who faced Springfield during the season were quick to take up the cry, for he could bear plenty of watching.

Dartmouth opposed the Maroons in the season's opener before some 1,100 fans, and took a close decision, 40 to 38. Nels Phillips led the scoring for the Hickox men with a total of 12 points.

It was Springfield 43, A. I. C. 28 in the next encounter. Jackson led the scoring this time with 12 markers.

Columbia avenged its '36 defeat at the hands of the Maroons with a 43 to 32 win. Jackson again took high-scoring honors with a total of 11.

Ohio Wesleyan was no match for the infuriated Springfield lads and bowed, 54 to 32. Hettler outscored Jackson by one point to take the lead with a total of 13.

Villanova proved a bit too fast and deceptive for the Maroons and won to the tune of 47 to 36. Jackson again took the lead in scoring with 13.

Mass. State was turned back in a thriller that hung in the balance until the final whistle. The final score was 38 to 37 in favor of the local lads.

Amherst came from behind in a bitterly-fought struggle to win out, 38 to 36.

Tufts next entertained the Maroons at Boston and defeated them, 47 to 37.

Journeying on up into New Hampshire, the Hickox men stopped the Wildcats with a 42 to 34 victory.

Ithaca College found the "Hickox system" too complicated and bowed before the Maroons, 49 to 30. Jackson got 13 points, and Munro and Hettler accounted for 11 apiece.

Northeastern came to Springfield next, and went home again, defeated, 44 to 28. Jackson's 8 points tied him for the scoring lead in the game with Springfield's Sophomore sensation.

Travelling to Lowell Textile, the Maroons won another one, 46 to 33. Jackson garnered 14 tallies, while Redding, a Sophomore with plenty of what it takes, got 6 and Phillips 8.

Still on the road, the Maroons took St. Anselm's into camp, 43 to 27. Jackson again scored highest, and "Smokey" Mortenson, another Sophomore, made a good showing in the game.

Back home again to face the toughest team on the schedule—Rhode Island State. The game was a thriller, and the Statesmen won a hard-earned victory, 67 to 61.

Journeying to Providence, Springfield defeated the Friars, 52 to 32. This was the first defeat the Providence outfit had encountered on their own court since 1930.

Williams found its visit to Springfield none too enjoyable, as the Maroons shellacked its basketeers 61 to 31.

Providence next came to Springfield, but had no better luck and lost, 53 to 40.

The Maroons next headed for Boston to meet the strong and highly-favored B. U. team. "Smokey" Mortenson's last-minute basket gave the Springfield team a well-earned victory, 50 to 49.

The final game of the season was another thriller, as the Maroons nosed out Worcester Tech on the latter's court, 53 to 52. Al Werner, another Sophomore, made the victory possible with his set shot from the corner with only ten seconds of play remaining.

And so, though being far from one of Springfield's best years on the basketball court, the '38 season turned out much better than pre-season prophets had predicted. The Maroons won 13 times in 20 starts, and lost by only two points to Dartmouth, Amherst, and Rutgers. Villanova, Tufts, R. I. State, and Columbia, the other teams who downed the Maroons, were among the best teams in the East. Getting off to a slow start, Springfield dropped five of its first eight contests and then came back strong to take all but two of its twelve remaining games. After giving R. I. a good scare by running up 61 points to the Statesmen's 67, the Maroons closed the season in a blaze of glory by defeating the favored B. U. and Worcester Tech combines on successive Saturdays, thus giving fair warning that when the New England title is being talked of next season they would have to be considered very seriously. Captaining next year's outfit will be "Bobbie" Hettler.

Varsity Baseball

COACH DE GROAT and his promising band of "baseballers" headed for the Southland just about the time the vanguard of the red-breasted army prepared to wing its way northward. As the genial master of the diamond surveyed the coming season, he seemed a bit skeptical about the outcome. It was a season in which anything could happen . . . and did.

Looking the boys over, Coach DeGroat realized he had a good team on the whole, with Huston and Allen playing their final season for the Maroons, and then heading for the big leagues. His one big headache centered around his pitching staff. As they went so the team would go; and that's just about the way things turned out.

Yale won the opener after a bitter eleven-inning contest; then Lowell Textile and Vermont were easy victims. The first game with Holy Cross was rained out, and C. C. N. Y. eked out a one-run decision. Williams, Boston College, and Amherst bowed in that order to the Maroon tossers, and after rain had washed out the return battle at Vermont and the St. Michael's encounter, Providence won the annual slug-fest, with Clarkson also taking a fall out of the wavering Maroon nine. A victory at St. Lawrence was followed by defeats at the hands of Mass. State and Tufts. A shut-out win over New Hampshire preceded the finale with Holy Cross, which the Crusaders won.

The season's average was just .500, with seven wins, seven defeats, and three canceled games. At the close of the campaign "Archie" Allen became the property of the New York Yankees, while Warren Huston signed up with the Philadelphia Athletics.

A Highlight Review of the Season

THE SOUTHERN TRIP: After a 5 to 2 win over Elon College, Springfield dropped the second game with that team by the same score. Then two close ones were dropped to North Carolina, and two more to Catawba before heading back home.

YALE: Back to New England, the Maroons officially opened the '37 season against their traditional lid-cracking rival, Yale, at New Haven. A three-run rally in the eleventh gave the Bulldogs a win, 9 to 8. "Kip" Mantor went the route for Springfield, giving 17 hits while his teammates collected 10.

LOWELL TEXTILE: The first home stand of the season found Lowell Textile providing the opposition. Allen, Muir, and Nuttal led the onslaught at the plate which resulted in a 28 to 0 verdict for Springfield. Hall pitched, limiting the visitors to 6 hits, while three opposing pitchers gave the Maroons 22 safeties.

VERMONT: With Mantor again on the mound, in a first-rate pitching duel with "Lefty" Beadle, Vermont and Springfield went into the latter's half of the seventh scoreless. Then, with the bags filled, "Nifty" Huston stepped into one of Beadle's fast ones and it was four big runs for the home team. The Maroons got another run in that frame, and four more in the next, to win the game, 9 to 1. Mantor held the opposing batsmen to 5 hits. Springfield garnered 10.

HOLY CROSS: Rained out.

C. C. N. Y.: Although they outhit City College, 12 to 7, the Maroons dropped a 5 to 4 decision to the Lavender. In the fifth Allen homered with Husty aboard. Muir continued to hit, getting four out of four. Hall pitched fine ball but was pulled in favor of Mantor after the first City College batter singled in the ninth with the score 4 to 3 in Springfield's favor. With two out and two on, Rosenblum singled through the box to give the Lavender a hard-earned triumph. Hall gave 6 hits and Mantor, 1.

WILLIAMS: The Maroons next invaded Williamstown just long enough to hand Williams College a 12 to 8 setback. Mantor held the opposition to 2 runs and 3 hits in his seven innings on the mound. Red Reed and W. Clark were ineffective, however, and Hall was summoned to stem a dangerous last-inning rally by the Williams team. Allen again homered and Capt. Nuttal belted a brace of triples. Springfield totaled 13 hits to Williams' 8.

BOSTON COLLEGE: Holding the Eagles to seven hits, Hal Hall turned them back, 6 to 5, winning the first major victory of his career. Allen smacked his third circuit clout within the course of a week before Prom week-end guests who thronged Pynchon Park. The Maroon batsmen accounted for 6 hits.

AMHERST: The next stop was at Amherst, where, led by the heavy hitting of Allen, Huston, Nuttal, and Muir, the De Groat men won a 9 to 7 decision over the Lord Jeffs. Kip Mantor again went the route, surrendering 12 hits to the opposition's war clubs. His teammates returned the same number of safe bingles for him.

VERMONT: Rained out.

ST. MICHAEL'S: Rained out.

PROVIDENCE: It was again Hall's turn on the mound as Springfield engaged Providence at Pynchon Park. He was blasted from the mound in the fourth inning, and as Mantor fared no better than his predecessor, the Friars went on to whitewash the Maroons, 9 to 0. Hall yielded 6 hits, Mantor 7, while Springfield batsmen got a total of 6 safeties.

CLARKSON: Picking up where the Friers left off, Clarkson halted the Maroon team, 8 to 2, at Potsdam.

ST. LAWRENCE: Springfield 4—St. Lawrence 1.

MASS. STATE: A young lad named Bemben pitched State to a convincing 8 to 0 win over Springfield, allowing but two scratch hits to get into the records. The Statesmen had little trouble in solving the deliveries of Kip Mantor and slugged him for 14 hits, while the Maroons' heavy artillery had a very definite "off-day."

TUFTS: Tufts 5—Springfield 1.

NEW HAMPSHIRE: Hurling invincible ball throughout the entire game, Hal Hall turned back the Wildcats, 3 to 0. By scoring single tallies in the third, fourth, and seventh innings, Springfield again went into the win column. Huston and Nuttal played outstanding ball in the field. Hall allowed 7 hits, while his teammates collected 5.

HOLY CROSS: Because of his fine exhibition against New Hampshire, Hall was given the call against the Crusaders in the final game of the season, which found Allen, Huston, Wood, and Captain Nuttal making their last appearance in the Springfield line-up. It was the Crusaders' day, however, and they went back to Worcester the victors by the score of 6 to 2, collecting 16 hits off Hall's offerings. The Maroons made 7 safe blows.

Varsity Lacrosse

WITH a record of five wins and four losses, the Maroon Lacrosse team, under the leadership of Captain Lloyd Sanborn, was again one of the outstanding contenders for the New England Championship, an honor which the Maroons held last year.

By virtue of wins over M. I. T., New Hampshire, Brown, Tufts, and losing but to Yale and Harvard in the New England circuit, the Maroons took second place in the New England finals. The team placed second by losing a hard-fought game to Harvard, 10 to 6.

As in past years, Coach Leo Netter's team showed their fighting spirit in games with some of the strongest teams in the country. The style of play used by Springfield kept their opponents constantly in fear throughout every game.

Next year's team will miss many capable performers through graduation, losing Captain Sanborn, Spahr, Mahan, Belanich, Steinhoff, George, Farrelly, Smith, but will have Bent, Bryant, Phillips, Neal, Donovan, Gibbs, O'Neill, Flint, Bohlinger, Blanchard, and many fine Sophomores with which to form the nucleus of another strong team.

Game Write-ups

Springfield 12 M. I. T. 0

Spahr and Belanich Star

The season opened with a one-sided win over M. I. T. In a well-played game at Tech Co-op Field, in Boston, the Maroon Lacrosse team easily outscored an inexperienced but courageous club, 12 to 0. As this was the opening game of the season, many reserves were used who showed enough potential strength to disqualify all fears of a weak team for the coming season.

Yale 10 Springfield 6

Trailing the Maroons 4 to 3 in the first half, a strong Yale team made a comeback in the second half to overcome Springfield, 10 to 6. It was the same score by which the Maroons defeated the Bulldogs the year before. Bohlinger was the outstanding player for Springfield in her defeat.

Hobart 7 Springfield 8

Heavy Hobart Club Gives Maroons Second Defeat

In one of the best games of the season a snappy team from upper New York gave a clever exhibition of stick-handling and team-play to put the damper on the Springfield team. Hobart was the only team to overcome Springfield during the previous season. Belanich, Farrelly, and Mahan were the only locals to register goals.

Syracuse 8 Springfield 5

In another rough, slashing game Springfield put up an excellent opposition to make for a close nip-and-tuck game. Syracuse spurted to win by a score of 8 to 5. The local scoring was evenly divided among Spahr, Steinhoff, Phillips, Farrelly, and Mahan. Steinhoff and Mahan were the outstanding players for the locals as Springfield went to defeat to a better team.

Springfield 15 C. C. N. Y. 5

Invading Lewisohn Stadium with a will to win after dropping the last three starts, the Maroons easily overpowered the scrappy New York team. Phillips showed his skill to score five goals, Belanich three, and Bent, Blanchard, Bohlinger, and Mahan each accounted for one.

Springfield 8 New Hampshire 3

Junior Prom week-enders were thrilled as the Maroons defeated a rugged New Hampshire team. Bill Blanchard, who started to play lacrosse this season, led the Maroons to an easy 8 to 3 victory. Others who contributed to the scoring were Steinhoff, Sanborn, Smith, Phillips, and Neal.

Harvard Wins Championship Match 10 to 6

In the most important game of the year the Maroons dropped a decision to the Harvard team, led by Cleveland, who alone scored five goals. For Springfield the scoring was equally divided among Bent, Belanich, Mahan, Farrelly, and Bohlinger. The whole team played well, but the clever stick-handling of Cleveland was too much for the Springfield boys.

Springfield 24 Brown 7

Sanborn, Belanich, Spahr, Phillips, Bent, and Donovan score high as the locals have a field day at Providence.

In the easiest game of the season the Maroons came bouncing back from the Harvard defeat to pin back the ears of the Brown Bear by an overwhelming score. "Duke" Donovan, a beginner, was one of the high scorers of the game.

Springfield 19 Tufts 2

In another "breather" the Maroons won their last 1937 encounter over the Tufts team by a score of 19 to 2. The Maroon offense clicked in every detail to work with a defense to raise the score for Springfield and keep the score of the Tufts boys down.

Varsity Track

BEFORE the grips were unpacked from a glorious spring vacation the Maroon Track men had started to get down to work under the tutelage of Head Coach Jack Rothacher, assisted by Coach E. J. Pennock and "Stu" Parks. The team was captained by Henry Walmsley, who was well captioned by the newspapers as a "one-man track team."

After two weeks of practice the Maroons journeyed to Middletown, Conn., where they faced a Wesleyan team which had the advantage of indoor practice. Even though the Wesleyan team was the favorite, the Maroons lost by the margin of 70 to 65. In this meet the team showed that their strength lay in the track events.

The next meet saw the Maroons hosts to a powerful Maine University team. This was another heart-breaking loss for the Springfield men who came out on the short end of a 71 to 64 score. In this meet Walmsley, Dattola, and Turner were the outstanding men for the Maroons, as each captured two first places.

The team next journeyed to Burlington, Vt., where they easily defeated the University of Vermont team by a score of 84 to 50. This meet saw an improved track team, a team which showed power and reserve in all events. In this meet "Johnny" Turner broke the broad jump record with a leap of 23 feet 5 inches.

The team again went on the road. This time their goal was Durham, New Hampshire, where they lost to the powerful University of New Hampshire team by a score of 73 to 61. It seemed at first that the Maroons would be the winners, but the men in the dash events fell down after a brilliant season. In this meet the men in the field events proved themselves an asset by taking 5 out of the 7 events.

After having their last dual meet rained out, the Maroons started to prepare for the New England Track Championships. At this meet "Johnny" Turner captured the broad jump title for Springfield.

Varsity Swimming

CHARLES E. SYLVIA, who a few years ago made New England swimming fans sit up and take notice as he splashed his way to victories for Springfield, returned to his Alma Mater to coach the Maroon Swimming team this year. The team, co-captained by Frank Noonan and Bill Blanchard, looked good in pre-season drills, and most of the interest centered around Sophomore Harry Rawstrom, who seemed to consider breaking records as the more whimsical side of his trade.

Connecticut State loomed first in the path of the Maroon ducks, who had little trouble disposing of the Statesmen 50 to 25. Rawstrom took first place in the 440- and 220-yard free-styles, at the same time establishing new pool records for the events.

A heart-breaking defeat at the hands of Amherst followed. Despite the fact that Rawstrom again won two events, as well as figuring prominently in the free-style relay team's victory, Springfield lost the meet, 40 to 37. The other members of the triumphant relay team were Hatch, Page, and Blanchard. Noonan and Minerly placed first and second respectively in the diving contest to give Springfield a clean sweep in the board events.

The first home appearance of the Swimming team found Williams providing the opposition and taking the Maroons into camp by the decisive score of 47 to 28. Rawstrom again tucked the 440 and 220 free-styles in his pocket, while Blanchard captured second place in the 100-yard dash, and Hatch took the backstroke. The relay team made its third win in a row, but the Williams lads took too many places in the other events and it was loss number 2 for Springfield.

From the Quaker State came a scrappy group of swimmers representing Rider College, and it took everything the Maroon swimmers had to come out on top of a 39 to 36 score. Three New England records fell by the wayside in this contest. The relay team clipped the old New England record by almost a second, reducing the time from 3:45.3 to 3:44.4. Rawstrom lowered the 220 mark from 2:19.7 to 2:17. Fenger, of Rider, established a new backstroke record for the 150-yard event with the time of 1:43.6.

A trip to Providence, where the Maroons met the Brown swimmers, proved quite disastrous, as the Bear paddled its way to a 47 to 28 victory. Some consolation came from the fact that the relay team again turned in a convincing triumph, Hatch again took the 150-yard backstroke, and Rawstrom continued his winning ways by again annexing the 440- and 220-yard events.

Another defeat was in store for the Maroons when they arrived in New Brunswick, N. J., and matched strokes with the swimming team of Rutgers University. The score read 57 to 13 at the finish. This was the first meet in which the relay team bowed to a superior combine, and a Mr. Reilly nosed out Rawstrom in the 220, but the latter came back to win the 440.

Home again to the McCurdy Natatorium, Coach Sylvia's outfit swam in ahead of Trinity College, 41 to 34. Ramft of Springfield was first in the 220 free-style, with Rawstrom a close second. Rawstrom went on to win the 440, establishing a new pool record by clipping .7 seconds off the old record.

Hatch again won the 150-yard backstroke, Page and Blanchard were first and second respectively in the 1,000-yard free-style, and Noonan was first in the diving contest.

Old McCurdy Natatorium trembled as though hit by an earthquake as Harvard's swimming team set about breaking everything but the windows. One national and six New England records were broken as Harvard won the meet, 60 to 15. Kendall of Australia, holder of many of the British Empire's free-style records, established a new national record for the 440 in a 20-yard pool with the fast time of 4:36.4. Captain Hutter, member of the Olympic team, set a new record in the 60-yard splash and also won the 100-yard event.

A trip to Brunswick, Me., found the Maroons bowing to Bowdoin, 42 to 33. Hatch won the 150-yard backstroke and Rawstrom again won the 440- and 220-yard events.

Dartmouth opposed the Maroons in the final dual meet of the season, and the Big Green had little trouble winning, 51 to 24, in its own pool. Rawstrom again came out on top in the 440 and 220, and in the 220-yard breaststroke Murphy and Pohndorf of Springfield were second and third respectively.

Last, but not least, came the New England Intercollegiates in which eight New England colleges participated. Harry Rawstrom proved that he really had the making of a champion by setting new records in the 220- and 440-yard free-styles. He then entered the Eastern Intercollegiates and emerged champion in the 440 event by setting a new record of 5.06.

Gym Team

THE SPRINGFIELD GYM TEAM, guided by Coach Leslie Judd and captained by Hugh Nobel, started to condition early for a schedule which consisted of more than 22 exhibitions, in addition to several competitive meets.

Springfield has been known for its gym teams from the fact that each year the team has had a new and varied program in which new acts were presented to its growing audiences and friends. This year's team, teeming with talent, will long be remembered by the fact that it presented the most varied and novel program ever given by a Springfield Gym team.

In order to present such a varied program, the team was composed of men who were very versatile, thus making a program which was rich in the field of gymnastics, various dances, and special acts.

Besides the regular routine numbers, the dances given by the team were new and varied from anything ever given by a Springfield team: A dance of the fishermen of the Lake Pascuaro region of Michoacan, Mexico; Harold LeMaistre, from Australia, presented a spectacular South Sea Island fire dance. Carroll Newstrom, a talented Sophomore, presented an Indian scalp dance typical of Indian life. Besides this dance Newstrom gave a cornet solo, being an excellent musician as well as a gymnast.

Besides the above special dances the following team dances were given: Hungarian dance, Indian ceremonial dance, Cuban cane cutters' dance, and a drill combat with sabres which was arranged by Douglas Boyea.

The novelty acts presented were: A comedy juggling act by Clem Perkins, and baton twirling by William Wright.

If there was one thing which made this year's Gym team stand out as one of the best, that particular act was the statuary of youth, designed by Coach Judd. This year's team presented players which depicted various notable bronzes and different forms in athletic events. Wherever the Gym team presented its exhibition, this number stood out above the rest as the coming thing in exhibition work and physical education.

The boys have also proved to be excellent on the apparatus in defeating M. I. T. in a dual meet and then later taking high honors at the New England Championships held at M. I. T.

The team wound up an excellent season with two long trips. One of the trips took the team through the upper part of Maine and Canada, where they were acclaimed by large audiences. The second trip took the team out to Detroit for the International "Y" Championships and Physical Education Congress, where they literally "stole the show" by the statuary of youth number.

Varsity Wrestling

WITH but two lettermen returning for action on the mats, the Maroon grapplers were almost an entirely green squad. A further handicap for the group was the fact that there were no men on the squad light enough to make the 118-lb. class, although by careful training and hard work, Johnnie Augustine was able to make the 126-lb. class.

In Gil Dayton, Coach Pennock found a co-worker for Bob Snow, and these two shared the 135-lb. battles, taking most of the matches in this class. Bill Howes took over the 145-lb. class after Jan Pepe's debut at Amherst. In the 155-lb. class, Jones showed real promise until an injury finished his activity for the year.

Co-Captains Paquin and English handled the three light-heavyweight classes in excellent style. Both men finished their college wrestling careers without being pinned. Gus Lindgren supported English in the two upper classes.

A gem for next season was found in "Bing" Swift, who came "into his own" and used his strength to great advantage.

The team held its annual banquet at Coach Pennock's camp in the Berkshires and elected Bill Howes and Robert "Cowboy" Jones as Co-Captains for the coming season. The Maroons are looking forward to a banner year with the wealth of material coming up from the Frosh team.

Varsity Cross-Country

THE SPRINGFIELD CROSS-COUNTRY team, under the able direction of Coach Bliss P. Sargeant and guided by Co-Captains Bob Snow and Norm Holder, got under way to a season of three dual meets and three open meets in store for them early last fall.

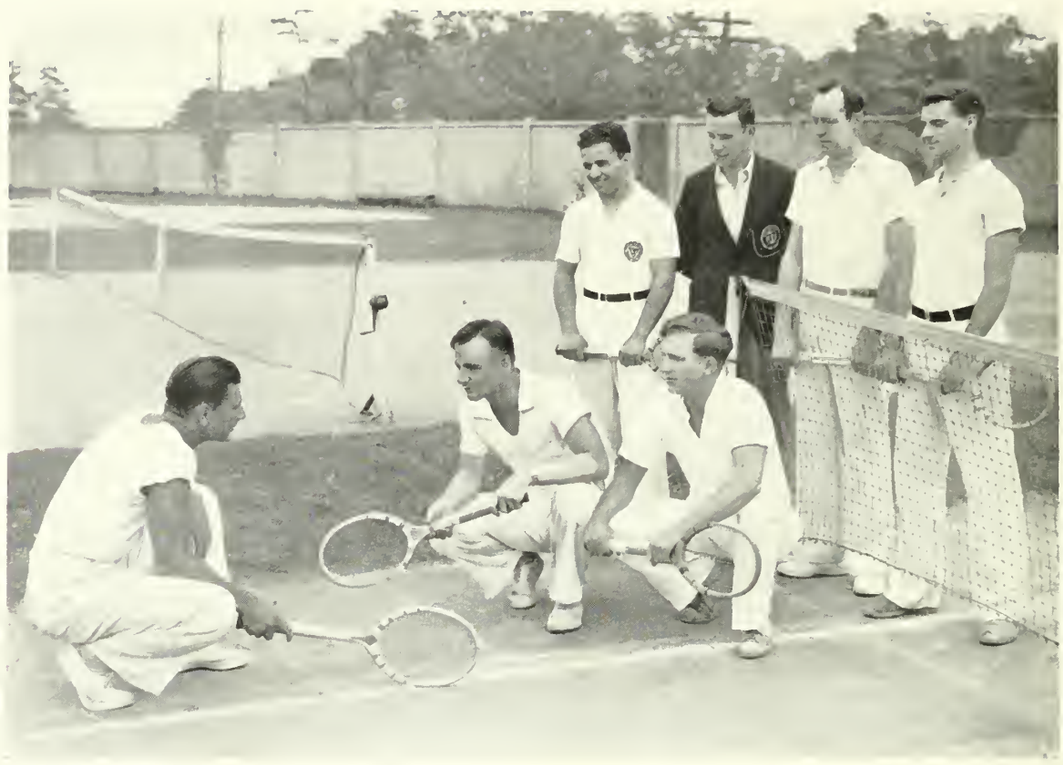

The harriers got off to a bad start by losing to a far superior veteran Wesleyan team. However, this first defeat did not throw the harriers off their stride, for the next week they ran to a win over the Bard College team by a score of 19 to 36. Springfield captured first and second through the combined efforts of Sophomore Badrow and Co-Captain Snow.

With a combined team of Varsity and Freshmen, the Maroons traveled to Cambridge, where they were entered in the Harvard Open meet. In a field of eight, the combined team walked off with third-place honors for the Maroon and White.

Individual honors go to Badrow, who scored the most points for Springfield throughout the season.

The 1938 schedule was as follows:

October	8	Wesleyan at Springfield
October	14	At Bard
October	23	Vermont at Springfield
October	24	Harvard Open at Cambridge
November	1	Conn. Valley Run (away)
November	8	N. E. I. A. A. (away)

Varsity Tennis

THE Maroon racquet swingers, under the guidance of Coach John Brock and Captain William Hanson, who were indoors within a few days of their opening match, were greatly handicapped. As the season progressed, the tennis men proved themselves to be skilled players and gave their opponents a battle for their laurels.

The close of the season found the racquet swingers with only two victories. Lack of outdoor practice and new team members contributed to their set-back. Due to the efforts of Anderson, Hanson, Marr, and Lague, who proved himself to be a consistent player by winning most of his matches, the season was by no means a total failure.

Positions of team: Robert Anderson, Captain William Hanson, Robert Marr, Alan Witbeck, Norman Lague, Karl Oermann, William Sampson, and Curtis Cheney.

Freshman Soccer

Under the coaching of Bill Hanson, and the captaincy of Gordon Gray, the Freshman soccer team completed a four-game schedule without suffering defeat last fall. The team displayed excellent form throughout the season and cooperation was a fine feature of their game. In four games they scored 13 goals while limiting their opponents to 3.

Gunnar Lundgren, flashy Swedish ace, was the highest scoring cog in the Maroon yearlings' offense. Several members of the squad showed promise of developing into varsity performers, and it is hoped that the Class of '41 will be amply represented on the Springfield College National Soccer Champions next season.

Freshman Football

Considerable talent was uncovered during the past football season when the Class of '41 edition plowed through a four-game schedule and won half of the games played.

Victories were chalked up at the expense of Nichols Jr. College and New Hampton, and defeats were suffered at the hands of Wentworth and Roxbury. Coach DeGroat was highly pleased at the fine showing his prodigies made and expects to see the Class of '41 well represented on the varsity combine next fall. Douglas L'Hommedieu served as captain of the aggregation and was regarded by his teammates as one of the most dependable players on the Maroon forward line. J. Pasquale, A. Kaminski, and M. Adrain ably assisted Coach DeGroat throughout the season.

The numeral men were Bauer, Blanchard, Calef, Compton, Cowell, Delemater, Doleva, Fitts, Gilley, Grant, Grimaldi, Gunney, Hargraves, Henderson, Hurlburt, Izer, Jones, Kalencki, Lewis, L'Hommedieu, Lysak, Nevil, Nover, Randall, Schniffer, Shanks, Sparaco, Spaulding, Turner, Walker, Woodward.

Freshman Basketball

Further sport honors in Freshman athletics were added for the Class of 1941 records during the past basketball campaign when Coach Wendell Mansfield's Frosh aggregation completed an unbeaten season.

The Frosh opened their schedule in fine style early in February with a sparkling 38 to 31 victory over a clever Worcester Academy array. A week later they came to grips with Nichols Jr. College of Dudley and scored a one-sided 37 to 16 conquest over the invaders. Their third win of the season was registered in West Gym when the Maroon yearlings showed excellent form in defeating Trinity Frosh by the count of 38 to 26. Cheshire Academy proved the next victim of the Maroons as they returned from the Connecticut institution with a 38 to 23 conquest under their belts.

In the final contest of the season the plebes established their most noteworthy victory of the schedule when they played brilliant basketball in submerging the Providence Frosh aggregation, a team that had previously scored an impressive win over the Springfield Junior Varsity.

John Wydro, former Oil City, Pa., brilliant, captained the Class of 1941 array and displayed consistent form.

Freshman Baseball

THIS year's Springfield College Freshman aggregation shows great potentialities. In the first engagement of the season Ray Schmidt, one of the finest pitching prospects Springfield has had in some time, twirled excellent ball and shut out Collegiate Prep of New Haven, Conn., by the score of 2 to 0. Among those who show excellent prospects of developing into good Varsity material next year are Schmidt, Watson, Wydro, Hargraves, and Frederick. Watson and Schmidt are acting as co-captains of this year's combination.

Freshman Swimming

The Freshman swimming team completed its season by dropping a hard-fought meet to Gardner High School 45-21. This season has been one of varying fortunes and several good swimmers have developed.

Ed Shea, sensational breast-stroker, Court Pierce, backstroker, and Red Watson, sprint artist, as well as Joe Mallen, a diver, have developed this season and should do much in varsity competition next year.

Jim Halliday, Frank Smith, Jake Jacobus, Don Roberts, and Jim Syner have improved steadily all season. A victory over the Boston Boys' Club and a tie with the Amherst Freshmen constitute the best performances of the team.

Freshman Wrestling

Under the tutelage of Coach Bliss Sargeant, the Springfield College Freshman wrestling team displayed exceptional skill in the grunt and groan sport and carried through a successful schedule of four meets.

Dutch Grant, that rugged Freshman farmer from upper New York State, fought through all his matches without encountering defeat. Dick Walker in the 155-pound class also displayed fine form and was successful in avoiding defeat.

At the conclusion of the season the team elected Charles Spaulding their captain. Throughout the season Spaulding came in contact with some of the finest wrestlers in collegiate ranks and his achievements were appreciated by his teammates.

Freshman Cross Country

Keen interest was displayed in cross country this season and Coach Sargeant's Freshman charges raced to an unbeaten season and placed high in the Harvard and NEICAAA Opens. Charles Randall and Roy Owens were the outstanding sprinters for the Maroon cause and Randall won considerable attention from experts and newspapers with his sensational and consistent running.

Several of the team members are regarded as excellent prospects for the Springfield varsity cross country team next season.

The following individuals were awarded numerals for their performances: Christy, Dulleba, Eames, Empleton, Henderson, Lewis, Owen, Randall, Safford, and Manager Cliff Balcom.

Songs

FOR OLD SPRINGFIELD

Where the pines stand on high o'er the far shining water,
Where the winds whisper soft thru the forests of yore,
There rise thy towers, our beloved Alma Mater,
There sounds thy praise from each echoing shore.
Let each noble deed in our mem'ry be dwelling,
Where victory has crowned us on track, field, or floor;
Then our voices we raise in the glad chorus swelling—
To thee, dear old Springfield, our anthems we pour.

Chorus

For old Springfield, for old Springfield,
We'll score away
And win the day
For Springfield.
For there is where you learn to play the game,
And there is where you learn to win the same;
The very best place on earth is she,
With a 'rah, 'rah, 'rah, 'rah, 'rah,
Springfield, Springfield, Springfield.
For old Springfield, for old Springfield,
We'll score away
And win the day
For Springfield.

ALMA MATER

Now raise a song for Springfield,
Let hearts and voices blend
To celebrate her praises,
Whose fame shall have no end;
While fellowship makes holy,
While eager hope elates,
And visioned men come thronging
Her spacious gates.

May victory descending
E'er keep her banners bright,
And dye with new effulgence
Our rare Maroon and White;
Bring fairness with thee winging,
And energy to dare;
Together shall ye guardian
Her fields so fair.

Earthwide may happy boyhood
Lift high his wond'ring eyes,
Strong youths bring back the vision
Of earthly paradise;
To follow truth to wisdom,
Nor faint thru falt'ring fears—
Be this thy task, O Springfield,
Thru all the years.

SHOW ME THE SCOTCHMAN

Show me the Scotchman who doesn't love the thistle;
Show me the Englishman who doesn't love the rose;
Show me the true-hearted son of old Springfield
Who doesn't love the spot (! ! !)
Where the Massasoit flows.

Songs

SPRINGFIELD, OUR SPRINGFIELD

O Springfield College on the hill,
Our hearts to you we raise,
For deeds you've done with heart and will
In many other days;
But most of all your spirit and
Your loyalty we praise.
O Springfield, our Springfield,
We sing to you.
O Springfield, our Springfield,
Put fight in every play.
O Springfield, our Springfield,
Yours is the winning way.
O Springfield, our Springfield,
Let's get into the fray.
O Springfield, our Springfield,
We'll win today.

THE TEAM

The team, the team, the team,
Eleven men supreme;
They know the glorious game,
They'll fight for Springfield's fame.
We'll win, we'll win, we'll win,
For the team's in fighting trim;
So let's all make a noise
And get back of the boys,
And we'll win, win, win.

GO GET 'EM

Go get 'em, Springfield,
We're out today to win this game;
Go get 'em, Springfield,
We're backing you to bring us fame.
Fight, fight, fight, fight—victory is near,
And your praises loudly we will cheer.
Go get 'em, Springfield,

SPRINGFIELD, WE LOVE THEE ONLY

Springfield, we love thee only,
Our hearts are true.
Cheer! Cheer! The game is ours,
We'll stand with you.
Rush! Rush! Everyone's with you
Right to the finish.
We will uphold you—
You are the team.
On! On! On with the ball—
For it's Springfield's game.
Go get 'em, go get 'em NOW

THE BULLDOG SONG

The bulldog and the Army mule,
We'll admit can fight,
But the sons of Massasoit
Have the teams that we are proud of—

Chorus

Fight team, fight team,
On down the field—
Fighting for Springfield,
Never to yield.
Fight team, fight team,
We'll shout your praises—
Fight, fight, FIGHT.

Cheers

Your
READING HABITS
may affect your class work

The difference between efficient and inefficient reading may be the difference between success or failure in your classes.

With the Ophthalm - O - Graph, the new scientific instrument for photographing eye movements, we can quickly diagnose your reading habits.

You owe it to yourself to know whether or not you read easily and efficiently. If you are having difficulty in keeping up with your studies, we suggest you let us make a photograph of your eye movements.

"Ah happy hills, ah pleasing shade,
Ah fields beloved in vain
Where once my careless manhood strayed,
A stranger yet to pain!
I feel the gales that from ye blow
A momentary bliss bestow
As waving fresh their gladsome wing
My weary soul they seem to soothe,
And, redolent of joy and youth,
To breathe a second spring."
